

ATTENDEE PACKET

ITI CONFERENCE & TRADE SHOW

February 10th - 12th, 2026 | Des Moines, IA

IOWA'S PREMIER EDUCATIONAL & NETWORKING OPPORTUNITY FOR THE TURFGRASS INDUSTRY

You're Invited!

Iowa Turfgrass Professionals,

On behalf of the Iowa Turfgrass Institute Board of Directors, you are invited to attend the 2025 Iowa Turfgrass Conference, February 10–12, 2026, at the Holiday Inn Des Moines Airport/Conference Center.

This event is the Midwest's premier turfgrass gathering, offering education for every sector of the industry—golf, sports turf, and lawn care. In addition to top-notch sessions, enjoy a half-acre trade show with 90+ exhibitors, great networking opportunities, and the popular All-Industry Reception on Wednesday evening.

Each year's conference is built from your feedback to ensure the best possible experience. As the official kickoff to the new turf season, this event is one you won't want to miss. Be sure to take a look at the next few pages of this packet and please consider joining us at this year's event. We look forward to seeing you in February!

FEATURED SPEAKERS

OPPORTUNITIES FOR YOU

Kyley Dickson, Ph.D.

Dr. Dickson Is a researcher at the University of Tennessee in Knoxville, where his work focuses on advancing athletic field safety and performance. Additionally, he serves as the Executive Director of the Alliance for Low Input Sustainable Turf (A-LIST), a position he has held since 2022. In this role, he leads efforts to promote as well as identify environmentally sustainable and high-performing turfgrass varieties.

Matt Fleetwood, Ph.D.

As Global R&D and Technical Services Manager for The Aquatrols Company, Dr. Matt Fleetwood is responsible for managing the research and development of our portfolio of adjuvants, soil surfactants and other supplemental maintenance products, as well as providing technical support to our customers and sales team. Dr. Fleetwood handles product innovation pipeline, research trials and new product development, working to bring our innovative solutions to customers.

Tom Gould

Tom Gould is based in Chicago, Illinois and is a consulting agronomist for the USGA Green Section. Tom received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Iowa State University in Horticulture with an emphasis in Turfgrass Management. While completing his master's degree, Tom worked full-time as a Research Scientist, managing turfgrass areas and research trials. He additionally was an integral part of the field renovation of Jack Trice Stadium- Iowa State's football field. Prior to joining the USGA staff, Tom was the assistant golf course superintendent at Chicago Golf Club in Wheaton, Illinois.

Paul Hurst

Paul Hurst earned a Political Science degree from the University of Missouri in 1992 before discovering his true calling in turf management, later completing a Plant Science degree in 1996. His career in golf course management spans decades, beginning with three years as an Assistant Superintendent at Gustin Golf Course, followed by another three years at St. Clair Country Club, where he eventually served as Superintendent for ten years. For the past 15 years, he has co-owned GreensPro, continuing his dedication to the industry.

Gregg Munshaw, Ph.D.

Gregg Munshaw, Ph.D., is the Director of Agronomy for Pratum Seed Companies where he oversees the research program and educates on the role of new genetics in reducing inputs. He earned his bachelors and master's degrees at the University of Kentucky and his Ph.D. at Virginia Tech. Prior to his time in the seed industry, Munshaw was a faculty member at the University of Kentucky and Mississippi State University where he focused on sustainability, including improving soils and incorporating non-traditional plant species into turf stands. He was also an early adopter of bluemuda and has been conducting research on this system since 2015.

Trade Show

Iowa's premier educational and networking opportunity for the turfgrass industry. Come see the latest in equipment, fertilizers, grass seed, pesticides, and other turfgrass products.

Silent Auction

Returning 2026, an All-Industry Silent Auction will take place at the trade show. Each association will participate in this event, while offering the opportunity to purchase great products.

All-Industry Reception

The All-Industry Reception will be on Wednesday night following the trade show. Join us for hors d'oeuvres, beverages, and excellent socialization.

Iowa GCSA Social - Hotel Bar

Iowa GCSA members can get together for food and drinks after the Educational Seminars on Tuesday for a networking opportunity with fellow golf course superintendents.

ISFMA Social - By Pool

Continuing the tradition, ISFMA members will get together after the Educational Seminars on Tuesday for appetizers, beverages, and networking opportunities.
